Chamber of Deputies Supports Herriot in First Vote

PARIS, Aug. 21. (AP)-Premier Herriot tonight won assurance of a favorable vote in the chamber of deputies on the London agreement after he had read a long declaration defending his negotiations at the London conference. The danger of the senate taking hostile action appears small. The chamber sustained the government by a vote of 320 to 209 in defeating a motion to refer the London accord on the Dawes plan to a commission with the understanding that M. Herriot sign it first and then parliament would debate the question of ratification later on the theory that the agreement is a new treaty outside the Versailles treaty.

It was only the first step, the premier said and the months work of the experts could not be expected to re-establish European equilibrium. Never again, the premier pro-

HIS PLEA AHEAD OF TIME STATED

Will Appear Today Leaving Benj. Bachrach to Close

CHICAGO, Aug. 21. (AP) -An impassioned plea that Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb hang as an expiation for their murder of Robert Franks, followed by a dispassionate discussion of mental disease as a measure of turpitude in determining the penalty, today marked their hearing before Judge John R. Caver-

The former was given by attorney who wound up a four hours effort with a direct demand that the student criminals be sent to the gallows.

The latter came from Walter Bachrach, junior counsel for the defense who started the final summing up on behalf of the sons of millionaire families. Mr. Savage pictured Judge Caverly to himself as meeting the wishes of the community and of the world at large and as upholding the majesty of swift and sure justice by decreeing that Leo-pold and Loeb die by the noose. Mr. Savage referred to the de-fendants as "fiends." He declared they considered themselves and man." The assistant prosecutor ridiculed the testimony of defense childish phantasies in the defendants was impertinent to the intelligence of the court.

'supermen, above the law of God

Mr. Bachrach averred calmly OAKLAND, Nebraska, Aug. that analysis of the evidence would show that the defense had in fact, established a "degree of mental disease less than in-Bryan, Democratic candidate for sanity" and that while the state vice-president visited Oakland to-alienists might have been sincere in their conclusions that no such "Governor's Day" by the state disease existed, they had not taken proper opportunity to examine their subjects.

Mr. Savage sketched the sor row of the parents of Franks and the heavy burden placed upon the Leopold and Loeb families. Mr. Bachrach seized upon the prominence and respectability of his clients' households as a point to argue that by the very nasurroundings would not commit such a crime unless there was something wrong with them men-

The defense at adjournment announced a change in their plans whereby Clarence S. Darrow, veteran chief counsel for Leopold and Loeb will follow Walter Bachrach, leaving the firing of the final guns for his side to Benjamin Bachrach. Mr. Darrow it is expected will start his effort tomorrow as Walter Bachrach said he probably would finish his part of the attack on the state's entrenchments by noon. This will leave the entire afternoon of Friday and all of the short Saturday session to Mr. Darrow.

The epithets and denunciations of Mr. Savage failed to provoke two youths. Loeb once smothered a yawn behind his hand but on other occasions appeared to listen to the arguments as attentively as his companion. Both held whispered conferences with their attorneys from time to Plymouth Rock, the professor liscovered, was originally part of the Archaean granite of Labrador. It was slowly carried from there to Massachusetts by the move-ment of glacial ice. It beat the Pilgrims to Massachusetts by several hundred years, in spite of the fact that it was centuries on its journey.

This noble rock's composition tized last Sunday at the reservoir is biotite granite with altered plagioclase feldspar. So it is seen that it has an ancestry and a history all its own, with an honorable past going considerably farther back in time than the Pilgrims themselves.

All geology is fascinating to anyone who once begins to com-

EMIGRATION

We have heard much of immigration in these latter years. Here something on the other side of he shield—about emigration. It comes from the country which is most discriminated against, if there is any real discrimination, in our present immigration law. And it comes from a man whose utterances have not always been regarded as temperate and sober. Premier Mussolini of Italy says, fore. The worst of it is that the liams College is instructive in in a recent statement to American correspondents:

"The emigration policy pursued by the Italian government toward the United States, as toward other countries, aims to avoid sending abroad persons who do not correspondent to the economic and social needs of the country of immigration. It believes that sending such persons harms the country which receives them, as well as that which sends them. The the reparations commission, who former is damaged in its economy

LAMBS FROM WEST IN CORN FIELDS

Suggestions Made by Sheep Hus-bandry Department of Univer-sity of Illinois. Urbana, Ill. Aug. 22 .- If lilinois farmers follow their practice of the last few years it will not be long before thousands of west-ern lambs will be turned into cornfields throughout the state o be finished off and returned to the market as fat animals according to W. G. Kammlade assistant chief of sheep husbandry at the College of Agriculture University of Illinois. Some farmers will make money by doing this and others will lose or just about break even, depending to a large extent on the way they handle the lambs, he said. A part of the profit, of course will depend on the spread between the cost and the selling price of down to a minimum, that the lambs are given every possible the market."

The safest way of turning lambs into cornfields is to give them a good fill of hay before they go in for the first time. In fact, it is a good practice to drive them out of the fields once each day for three or four days and give them some hay each day. If little, if any, loss.

With increased prices for feeds, lamb feeders will need to put the gains on their animals as cheaply as possible, but too often lambs fattened in the cornfields of the cornbelt do not get enough feed. It takes feed to make fat and a variety of feeds is better than one alone. Many experienced lamb feeders use a supplement with corn. Rape apparently is best for this purpose, although soybeans often are used.

Tests show that clover hay is first class supplement if there is nothing in the field that can be used with corn. In one 41-day trial clover hay more than doubled the rate of gain made by the lambs and cut the cost of it more than one-third. Even better gains were made when linseed oil was used with the clover Care should be taken to see that the lambs have plenty of salt

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES

Director Henry Ward Pearson, of the College of Music, Illinois Woman's College, announces the engagement of Miss Catherine Rose Larmer, to fill the vacancy recently caused by the resignation of Miss Florence Kirby. Miss Larmer is a Leschetizky exponent, having been a pupil for many years in Berlin of Madam Stepanoff and in this country of Bloomfield-Zeisler; New England Conservatory in Boston, and again recently with Madam Stepanoff in New York.

Miss Larmer has a rich experience in both her preparation and teaching, having been Director of Music in two colleges and one university, including Ward-Belmont, Southwestern University, Galloway College and The Cos the lambs. Special advantages to children are offered in the way of class work as well as in private lessons. The free Theory and Eurythmic classes which have been a distinctive and unique feature of our organized children's work for the past few seasons will be continued. These classes meet every Saturday morning and a demonstration is given at the Annual Junior Festival in the spring. Prizes will be given again for pupils having the best practice record. The children's piano class, which includes small children not yet ready for private work, will be given under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Blackburn Martin.

The Child Culture Kindergarten work, which so successfully closed its first year's work in June, will be conducted again by Miss Margaret Grimsley, assisted by Miss Agnes Muleady. On account of its growing patronage, it will be given in the main building of the College of Music instead of the west side branch studio.

A series of recitals will be given by the music faculty, which are free to students and public. and the established Artist Series will also be a strong feature of the College of Music. The following artists are engaged for

Leo Ornstein, who is without doubt one of the most interesting pianists before the public; Lois Johnston, American Soprano; Willy Burmester, Violinist, who stands forth as a world-famed artist and composer, more than one hundred notable pieces for the violin having come from his pen; and Raymond Koch, American Baritone.

How to Judge the

There are various kinds of bonds and all do not have the same degree of safety. In order to judge the safety of a bond you should ask yourself these quest-

- 1-What is the security behind the bond?
- 2—Is the bond a first mortgage?
- 3-What class of people invest in these bonds? 4—What is the interest rate of the bond?
- 5-What is the reputation and record of the house that offers the bonds?

You will find that Equitable 7% Bonds are Safe because they answer each of your questions satisfactor-

- 1—The security behind every Equitable 7% Bond is the land and building of a choice residential property in Chicago.
- 2-The Chicago Title and Trust Co., (capital and surplus $19,000,000) certifies that each bond is a portion of a First Mortgage on land and
- 3—The most conservative investors, large and small, Trust Companies, Banks, Trustees and Guardians, who invest in the safest form of securities, invest in Equitable 7% First Mortgage bonds.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE FOR DEAF FURNISHES UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

Established in 1856, Its Graduates Now Number Hundreds

Washington, (AP)-The Colulaudet College, of this city, is described by its officials as the only school of its kind in the world which provides higher education for the deaf and the only institution in which a deaf child, with no formal education whatever, may enter and in the course of years be graduated with a well-rounded education and a collegiate degree.

The school was Amos Kendall, a distinguished statesman of his time, who in 1856 donated a house and three acres of land from his estate in northeast Washington, and employed Edward, Miner Gallaudet, of Hartford, Conn., as principal. SUITS MADE BY HART SCHAFFNER & MARX

Original values up to $45

THAT'S a very unusual price for Hart Schaffner & Marx suits, and this is a very unusual offering, even in this store of extreme values

We'll be perfectly frank about it

This isn't our entire stock; it's a selected group of suits we are particularly anxious to sell--broken lots, with only one or two sizes of a pattern left; light and dark colors and good weights particularly appropriate for year-round wear; some sport styles very good for school and business wear for the winter months

There's a good selection in every size. If you want a good suit for work, for use in the car, for all around wear and want it mighty cheap, here's your chance. One hundred and forty-seven suits won't go very far among the men of this community who would like to get a good utility suit for very little money

Sale begins Friday morning; ends Saturday night unless the suits are all gone sooner

Facts About the Lorain

Oven-Heat Regulator

What woman has not yet learned that it is possible to place a whole meal in the oven, set the"Lorain" at a certain heat and then be gone several hours, returning to find everything just right? Perhaps it was necessary to run down town, a thing you couldn't do with food in the ordinary oven. Perhaps you would like to run in on a neighbor informally for a short time. All this you can do, and much more if you possess a-

Cardinal Star Gets Seven Hits Out of as Many Times, Two Being Homers—Scores 8 to 4 and 12

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 21.—The New York Giants took both games of a double header from St. Louis today 8 to 4 and 12 to 1. Rogers Hornsby, Cardinal second baseman made seven hits out of seven times at bat, two of which were home runs, bringing his total home run record to 18. Kelly, .579 Meusel and Southworth also drove out circuit clouts.

Hornsby's second home .513 which came in the sixth inning .423 of the second game, was the only score the Cardinals could tally off Barnes.

It is not easy to decide instantly just how far back you have run. Into your mind comes the question. "Is the ball still good or is it out of bounds?" Usually the well-played lob is sent toward the back of the court St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 21.—Rog-ers Hornsby. Cardinal second baseman and leading major league batter poled out his seventeenth would be a whole lot better if but the other stayed at the net.

The player who stays at the net can guide you in your efforts to return the ball. He can tell easily whether the ball is going to stay in or go out and direct your play accordingly. This is the same system good outfielders use in baseball, with one helping the other.

I am reminded this connection that the two Kinsey brothers, Bob and Howard, play the game this way and get fine results from it. They have an understanding before each match as to which player will go back after the lobs, and which will stay at the net and "call" the shots. Inthe net and "call" the shots. FARM BUREAU NOTES

Reposed Grades for Eggs-The U. S. Department of Agriculture is proposing the following grades No. 1. Dirties. No. 2 Dirties and checks. F. A. Gougler of the Egg Marketing Department of the I. A. A. will be in Morgan County sometime in September to discuss these proposed grades. Mr. Gouger will quite likely make these talks in connection with some of the poultry culling demonstra-tions arranged by the Farm Bu-

Dwarf Fleabone-This weed was recently brought to the Farm Bureau office for identification. The plant is an annual and is a characteristic of meadows and pastures closely grazed. John Pieper of the College of Agriculare does not regard this weed as serious pest.

Phosphate Fertilizers - Bone eal acid phosphate, and rock hosphate are the most familiar hosphate fertilizers. Farmers ave found that small quantities bonemeal and acid phosphate drilled in with wheat give increased yields. Rock phosphate although low in price requires heavier applications and is not so readily available for plant foods.
